To Our Readers

It takes a heap o' worryin'
To make a Tupelo right--
A heap o' fuss and bother
And there's sometimes half a night
You have to sit and labor,
If you've dared to get behind,
And worry 'bout it somehow
With it always on your mind.
A Tupelo's not what gold can buy
Or get up in a minute.
Afore you get a Tupelo
Well, you put a heap o' labor in it.
You've got to race to make it pay
You've got to sit and sigh.
And wonder if you'll get it off
Your soul before you die.
And when it's handed to the lines,
To see some cynic come
And point an error out and leave
You furious, but dumb!
It takes a heap o' worryin'.
To make a Tupelo right,
So when you're asked to criticize,
Won't you please to--just sit tight?

Martha Jean Brown

Dedication

We, of the Tupelo staff, would like to dedicate our annual to Miss Margery Nihart for her help and advice.

Miss Nihart was born in Utah and grew up on a farm near Homedale, Idaho. She attended three years of high school in Homedale and graduated from Wilder High School.

She has received her B.A. degree from the College of Idaho. Besides the College of Idaho, she has attended Oregon State, University of Colorado, University of Washington, Boise Business University, Behnke-Walker Business College, Armstrong College in Berkeley, California, and University of Oregon.

Miss Nihart has taught, in addition to commercial courses, Latin, English, algebra, and art.

She has been an excellent Tupelo advisor since she came to Nyssa in 1944.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an active part of the student body. During the year, there is always plenty for everyone to do. The activities include noon intramurals, which provide interclass competition, playdays that offer participation and sociability with other schools, and the selling of Blue Crutches for Teens Against Polio. Through these activities, the girls learn the importance of working together and good sportsmanship which is very valuable throughout their lives.

Show

As an extra fund-raising project, the chorus, under the direction of Mr. Robert Q. Smith, put on a never-to-be-forgotten minstrel show. Nyssa merchants contributed by buying advertising space.

Intermission was also a time of fun and fund-raising. The "colored people" mixed with the audience and sold "watermelon juice" and "corn".

Also adding to the entertainment was an exhibit of magic by Rolf Sutschkow.

"The Diary of Anne Frank" was chosen for the Senior Class Play. The play, under the direction of Mr. Lawrence Schwarz and Mrs. Harriet Brumbach, ran for two consecutive nights with a different lead cast each evening. Skilled help from backstage was given by Rena Dirksen and Joy Gay Roth as business managers. An added novelty was the debut of "Kitty" in the role of "Mouchi".

Wrestling

Nyssa High started its first year of wrestling with nine boys and a new wrestling mat which cost over $1000. The team ended the season with 27 men and the following record: Four boys were taken to Boise December 2 to compete in the Invitational Match, one fourth place was won by James Wight. The team won the four-way meets with Adrian, Wilder, and Middleton; Cascade, Donnelly-McCall, and Cambridge; and one three-way meet with Adrian and Wilder. Meets were lost twice with Ontario, Vale, Middleton and once with Borah.

The team had a good season and should improve next year as they will have the benefit of experience.

"Cheatin' Again"

"Take me to your leader"

"That's tellin' him, Nancy!"

"Quit trying to hide it!"

"You ain't nothin'
but a Hound Dog!"

"Say, she has got a good figure!!"

"Dearest Gertrude???"

"How-deeee!"
"5,000 comedians out of work,
and you act like this!"

"What's the matter
no chairs!!"

"Mother said there'd be days like this!!"

No wrestling in the halls!

Oh, you say the funniest things.

Brush your teeth with Ajax--
the foaming cleanser.

Did you hang your stockings up, too?

Be careful of eye-strain!

What have you been doing
in there?!

Going out?

And where are you all going?

Don't forget your Wheaties!

The cheering section isn't cheering any more!

-and go straight to the office!!!!

What's the answer to number four?

Sweet and Innocent?

"I wish that I had paper dolls!!"

"FRIENDS!!!!?"

Acting my age!

Chew your food well. Remember your stomach doesn't have teeth.

Peanut Butter
Sandwiches Again!

"WOW, and he's in a white convertible, too!!"

The Line-up.

"What do you think,
Professor Stringer??"

"FULLBACK??"

And so, they dance!!!

"It's all right, Lou, we're just taking your picture!!!"

School's just gettin him down!!

Beatnik Day

History can't be that good!

Caught you in the act!

Watch your step and quit looking at me.

"I spy"

Shake hands and come out fighting.

Put it back before they catch you!!!!

Hurry, you will be late for class.

"Help!!!"

You should set a good example.

Please, no dancing in the halls!

Comic books in class?

Working hard or hardly working?
